Annotations appear at a particular point in the document or exercise.

A comprehensive Comments Library appears at the end of this handout and includes General Comments and Annotations related to the exercises and documents taught in Lessons 1-120. Specific references to lessons and the Reference Manual are included to encourage students to use their textbooks and GDP as tools to find their own answers.

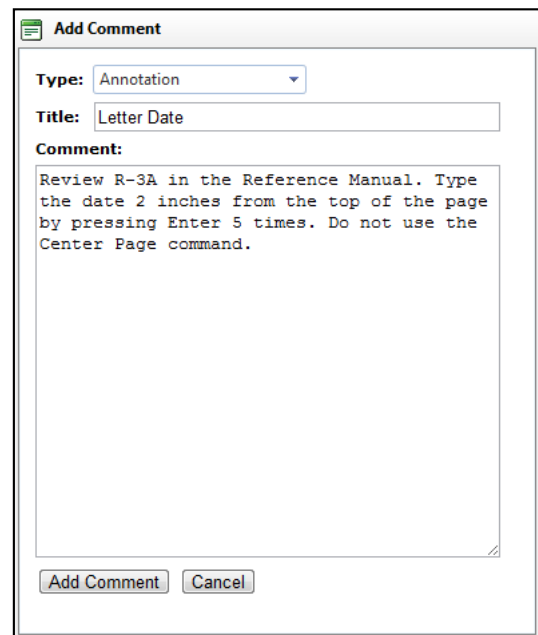

Use this detailed database of titles and comments to copy and paste desired information into your own Comments Library. Edit to suit your needs. All steps assume you are logged into Course Manager as a Full Instructor.

Create a Comments Library in Advance

1. Click GPS, Comments tab.
2. Click the Add Comment hyperlink link just below the Type box.

Note: To filter your Comments Library and display either Annotations or General Comments, from the Type box, click the list arrow and click the desired choice. Click the Title column heading to sort in ascending or descending order by title. Click the Text column heading to sort in ascending or descending order by typed text.

- From the Add Comment dialog box, click the list arrow next to the Type box; click either Annotation or General.
- Type a title in the Title box, or copy/paste a title from the Comments Library and edit as desired.
- In the Comment box, type the comment, or copy/paste a comment from the Comments Library and edit it as desired; click Add Comment.
- Repeat steps 2 through 5 until all desired entries have been added.

Add Comment

Type: Annotation

Title: Letter Date

Comment:
Review R-3A in the Reference Manual. Type the date 2 inches from the top of the page by pressing Enter 5 times. Do not use the Center Page command.

Edit the Comments Library

1. Click GPS, Comments tab; click the Edit icon for the desired comment (General or Annotation).
2. In the Edit Comment dialog box, make any desired changes; click Save Comment.
3. To delete the comment, click Delete in the last column; click OK to confirm the deletion.

Insert a Comment in Student Portfolio

1. Under USERS, click Students.
2. From the Students tab, first column, click the Portfolio icon to the left of the desired student.
3. From the Reports tab, click anywhere over the desired item to expand it.
4. Click Details for the desired attempt.

Note! In any skillbuilding drills in which error-alert is in use (for example, New Key drills or MAP+ prescriptive drills in which you must type the correct key to continue), a Details button is not available. In any unscored document processing job (for example, Report 55-29 or Form 103-8) a Details button is not available. Therefore, you cannot add comments to these items.

5. Click View in Word for any desired document processing attempt.

Create, Insert, Delete, or Edit a General Comment on the fly

COMMENTS LIBRARY

Conventions:

- Titles in all lowercase (for example, congratulations, on time) are generic comments that may be used as General Comments.
- Titles in all caps (for example, LETTER, BLOCK STYLE) are generic comments for a specific type of document and can be used as a general Annotation on the first line of a job.
- Titles in principal caps (for example, Letter Date or Reference Initials, "urs", or Reference Manual, Electronic) are specific annotations inserted at a pertinent point in a document.
- Titles in blue (for example, PROOFREADING CHECK) are specific comments used in Arlene Zimmerly's Keyboarding 1 course and will not necessarily apply to your course.
